Mr Leary,

Do you care to make a comment to Ms Parker's guilty plea, specifically her detailing how Aaron Broussard laundered money through the same Nova Scotia LLC that owns property at the Trout Point Development? Your former employees tell me you and Vaughn Perret were Mr Broussard's fiscal agents on the rentals. Thank you.

Charles,

Do you have any reaction to the letter to you from Roy D'Aquilla that was published today on Slabbed concerning your coordination of insurances with Aaron Broussard, a man you said had no management involvement with the lodge. I want to be fair here and give you every opportunity to explain this to me.

Thanks in advance.

Here is copy of email sent to me after story appeared about Trout Point. I don't remember the context. Sorry. I emailed back that I would look at links, but I don't remember checking them out and could not locate the subsequent email that included links. Hi Bill:

I am Doug Handshoe with Slabbed New Media, one of many media outlets Charles Leary, Vaughn Perret and their silent partners at Trout Point Lodge are currently suing for defamation for writing factual things about them. I saw your single sourced story this morning on Trout Point and just wanted to let you know we'll be profiling your report on Slabbed.

Now I am used to reporters blowing stories, it happens all the time. But since you mentioned the positive reviews on Trout Point on Trip Advisor did you determine how many of those Leary and Perret self authored? My favorite is the one written in the dead of winter that spoke glowingly of the roaring fire etc at a time the Lodge was closed for instance. The whole deal is pretty transparently phoney but since TripAdvisor got wise to their scam Leary and Perret no longer like the company.

In case you actually want to learn what is happening in your own back yard instead of being a PR front for a scam that is the subject of a current investigation by the State of Louisiana and the US Attorney you may want to check out the following links:

<http://www.postadvertising.com/2011/08/which-5-star-resort-wants-to-censor-your-comments/>

<http://slabbed.wordpress.com/2011/09/08/slabbed-solves-the-mystery-on-the-shores-of-the-tusket-river-in-nova-scotia-as-we-reveal-the-trout-point-connection-to-the-jefferson-parish-political-corruption-scandal/>

<http://slabbed.wordpress.com/2011/09/22/lets-talk-a-bit-more-about-the-billys-hill-trail-society-trout-point-lodge-charles-leary-and-aaron-broussard/>

As far as being sued by Leary and Perret goes, to the extent Canada is notorious for tourism libel and SLAPP suits, court judgments on such matters from Canada are no longer enforceable in the US so this topic will remain on the pages of Slabbed until the federal and state investigations are resolved and indictments are returned.

I am a blogger in South Mississippi that covers issues impacting this area, including the major political corruption scandal that has also ensnared Trout Point Lodge, a place you recently wrote a review on. I read your piece and was wondering in light of the experience that Story Worldwide CEO Kirk Cheyfitz had at the Lodge if Vaughn Perret and Charles Leary ghost wrote the article that appeared under your name or if they paid the Globe and Mail for the publicity?

<http://slabbed.wordpress.com/2011/08/31/kirk-cheyfitz-ceo-of-story-worldwide-writes-a-review-of-trout-point-lodge-for-post-advertising/>

Before I question the journalistic integrity of your newspaper in a post on this topic I'd really like your thoughts and comments on this matter in hopes that I can correctly report how Trout Point, which shafted the Canadian Government on loans and has mechanic liens attached to the property, can gain so much favorable coverage in Nova Scotia's main newspaper.

I thank you in advance for your prompt reply.

I'll add here in case it is not self evident that I have built complete dossiers on all the players in this social group and I intend through time to roll out each and every one in excruciating detail as long as the lawsuit in Canada is an outstanding issue for Slabbed. The reason for this is that this band of gay men act as a unit that will also scatter like cockroaches when the heat is applied. This is especially true of Carl Finley for example as his role in Paulsen illustrates.

Simply brilliant sharkpuppet, and insightful as well. Now I see the Trout Point sham more clearly.

It was and is Broussard's corrupt conduct that is the proximate cause of any of the alleged wrongs that Trout Point, Leary and Perret claim to have suffered.

Looks like these guys failed or refused to sue the proper party, the person whose actions are the root of all media coverage and various blog comments.

So my question is whether Slabbed and any of the commenters will join to third party Broussard if in fact Leary comes down here in an attempt to enforce this fraudulent Judgement. I have already concluded that Slabbed and the commenters will sue Trout Point, Leary, Perret, Abel and any one else who is a part of this bullshit should they step foot down here.

As a side note, if I were management of either the Times-Picayune or WVUE, I'd be seriously questioning the competence of their Canadian counsel given all we know about the fraud perpetrated by Leary et al upon the Canadian Courts.

I almost pity Charles Leary as he is a front for the real evil bastard in Vaughn Perret and both are simple freeloaders hitched to Danny Abel along with Shane D'Antoni and his family

I do pity Judge Pierre Muisse for even if he were well intentioned, (and I do not think he is) he is gonna come out on the end of this looking very badly IMHO.

I've been telling Leary for months that if he wanted a piece of me he had to come down here to get some. And by down here it won't be in the courtroom of a corrupt local judge like Ross LaDart no sir. All I need is a level playing field and the facts will take care of everything else from there.

I personally think Leary is scared of his own shadow and neither he nor Perret have the sack to come to Mississippi to attempt to enforce that judgment as they are cowards. When I'm done even Perret's niece, who filed an affidavit in that Fox 8 case, will understand her uncle is a grifting scumbag pussy.

What if WVUE had done a story about how Leary and Perret aggressively market Trout Point as a Gay destination? And is allegedly owned and managed by gays? No mention of Aaron Broussard. Do you think the Board of Directors of the Community School would refuse Mr. Loeb's donation? In fact, I think it is remiss on Mr. Loeb's part not to disclose this part of the Trout Point experience to the Board. Why the secrecy Mr. Loeb?

For me, this information would have no bearing ... but can we assume that the Directors of this School to be as tolerant as I?

This isn't a loss just for Slabbed either. Tele, under different handles has made substantial contributions to YRHT, AZ and The Lens. The connection of the Lens to Fox 8 is especially troubling in light of what we are learning about the doings up north.

And while I agree the myopic focus on internet commenters proves beyond the shadow of a doubt that Theriot, Broussard and the rest are complete cyber morons, it does not change the effect, which is to silence those that helped expose publicly the wrong doing.

We're to the point where Broussard and his henchmen are balls deep in a heap of trouble but they ultimately succeeded in silencing those they dubbed their worst critics, except one person that is. ☺

Their fraudulent actions in Canada cross over into more torts than what AMV has described in her civil rights case against the Parish and that does not count criminal implications. Canada.

Face of his NS Criminal activity

When Charles Leary, while denying Broussard was involved managing the Lodge, began threatening former employee Joyce Case Harlow after she spoke with me, I advised her, both via email and publicly on this blog to contact the FBI. After she called the NOLA office of the FBI I'll add the harassment stopped, except for an occasional defamatory comment such as the one they left about her on the Trout Point Blog recently.

I have yet to meet or even speak with the good guys but given the latest turn of events my advice to Whitnergate, Unslabbed and Telemachus is to go pay the FBI a visit.

Judge Pierre Muise should be proud he signed off on court orders that had the impact of putting people's lives at risk and impeded a major FBI investigation down here in NOLA. Keep that Muise surname circled folks.

Pardon me for being obtuse, but while I can comprehend, and put my arms around, "curatorships" awarded to Aaron Broussard in Jefferson Parish by upstanding Members of the State Judiciary, like "The Honorable" Glen Ansardi (and others). And while I can understand the Judge's benevolent bestowing of undeserved financial benefits on Mr. Broussard because of illicit relationships between and among Mr. Broussard and the Judge's family, I have some TROUBLE connecting the dots to Nova Scotia. Mainly because D'quilla was benefiting from them Ashton. He is also has enough stroke to tell Charles and Vaughn what to do at Broussard's request. The original allegation was Broussard was making Parish vendors rent his property at Trout Point. I think D'Aquilla's letter proves not only that Leary and Perret were Aaron Broussard's strawmen but they were also complicit in the alleged criminal activity.

Re: Kempt Wilderness Lodge

Dear Charles and Vaughn:

Attached is a copy of the insurance for the Kempt Wilderness Lodge/Caretaker's Cottage.

When Aaron was in Nova Scotia back in 2008, we discussed the possibility of placing this property on a rider or endorsement on the main insurance policy of Trout Point Lodge. I have some notes that Aaron brought back indicating that this was possible to do at the time.

At the present time, we pay about $2,000.00 per year for this insurance and we do not have enough revenue from the lot assessments to pay the note on the property as well as the taxes and insurance.

Would you please check to see if this property can be insured as an endorsement on the Trout Point insurance at a reasonable amount? If that is possible, let me know what we need to do in order to accomplish this.

Thank you for your continued cooperation

Very truly yours,

I knew there was something about that letter:

“Former Jefferson Parish President Aaron Broussard, who ran one of the largest local governments in the state until his abrupt resignation Jan. 8 amid a federal investigation of his administration, received more private legal work from parish judges during his tenure than any other lawyer, an investigation into the parish’s curatorships revealed.

Aaron Broussard got more private legal work from parish judges during his tenure as parish president than any other lawyer.

Broussard received more than 500 curatorships in the past decade, more than any lawyer listed on a roster of curatorship appointments obtained from the Jefferson Parish clerk of court. Curators are appointed by the court to represent absent defendants in civil cases.

Lawyer in firm handled most of Broussard work:

Court records show that in recent years, Ronald Vega, an attorney in the D'Aquila firm, handled much of the curator work for which Broussard was appointed. That firm received payments for Broussard's curatorships, according to a fee disbursement list provided by the clerk of court."

Does the fact that most of the work was done not by Broussard but by somebody else in another law firm raise an issue of judicial ethics? Quite often, though not always, appointed curators must appear in court.

Considering the sheer number of appointments, it would have become apparent to one or more of the judges that the work was not being done by Broussard, the lawyer who he/she appointed to represent the absent party. This doesn't strike me as being entirely kosher.

Ronald Vega traces his professional roots to the Gauthier law firm. David Loeb, to both Gauthier and Chehardy Sherman. If you trace back this social circle you will find that everyone of these Broussard cronies trace their lineage back to one or both of those places.

Remember a long time ago I posted about the old Gauthier firm and promised to connect it to the happenings in the JP scandal?

SOP, if you want to start linking all of the lawyers to dirty dealings in Jefferson Parish, you could start a whole new blog just dedicated to that.

It, to some degree, is still like that with the lawyers and judges in Jefferson Parish, although it has gotten somewhat better with the clean sweeping in 24th JDC (Green, Bengé, Bodenheimer, Porteous).

It is so nice, though, to see the girls get theirs. To think that they vehemently denied any connection to the Broussard scandal. You have exposed them so well, and I am sure that there is more to come. I hope that miscreant, bullies like them will crawl back to the Canadian spider hole they came from.

Re: Kempt Wilderness Lodge

Dear Charles and Vaughn:

Attached is a copy of the insurance for the Kempt Wilderness Lodge/Caretaker's Cottage.

When Aaron was in Nova Scotia back in 2008, we discussed the possibility of placing this property on a rider or endorsement on the main insurance policy of Trout Point Lodge. I have some notes that Aaron brought back indicating that this was possible to do at the time.

At the present time, we pay about $2,000.00 per year for this insurance and we do not have enough revenue from the lot assessments to pay the note on the property as well as the taxes and insurance.

Would you please check to see if this property can be insured as an endorsement on the Trout Point insurance at a reasonable amount? If that is possible, let me know what we need to do in order to accomplish this.

Thank you for your continued cooperation.

Very truly yours,

Some more background.

[-] sop81_1 10 points 9 hours ago

Spankr thank you for linking my post. There is so much more to this story on the Lodge. The owners have sued my blog and several other media outlets in New Orleans for factually reporting the connection of the Lodge and its owners to the largest corruption scandal to hit the metro area in literally a generation.

I am shielded from defamation judgments from Canada via the US SPEECH law so I will not back down in my reporting on the Lodge. Leary and his partners have also threatened other Canadian bloggers that picked up my reporting with SLAPP suits and unfortunately since they lack the free speech protections I enjoy under US law has successfully shut them up.

Here are 2 links to my blog Slabbed which explain the connection of the lodge to what we call the Jefferson Parish Political Corruption Scandal.

Thanks to all that clicked over to Slabbed to find out the rest of the story.

Interesting reading to say the least... Little bit of constructive criticism though, if you want to add any credence to your reporting, stop calling the two owners (who are openly gay) "girls".

Makes you look more like a bigot than a reporter, and brings down the credibility of the "reporting".

Oh Matrix, if you only knew them like we do down South. Didn't you know that Leary told a court in Nova Scotia everyone there was a bigot and he wasn't winning in court because he was gay?

In the case of Leary and Perret the word Girls fits to a T. I knew going in I'd take a hit or two for using it but it is what it is. Appreciate the friendly advice nonetheless.

Some of those names of the property owners at Trout Point have well documented connections to organized crime here in the US. From my standpoint fleshing all this out only gets better from here.

So why prove them right? All I am saying is that if what you are typing is to be taken as more than just unprofessional conspiracy theories, lose the unnecessary labels. When your readers read this, if comes across as someone who has a bone to pick other than a legitimate "news piece"

Prove them right??? That Nova Scotians are bigots? Heck anyone with a brain knows that is not the case anymore than the generalization that Southerners are all bigots.

I'm very happy to let the reader judge my work based on the quality of the information I present. I'm not into style points Matrix. I'll leave that kind of writing for the journalists that write entire stories that say nothing but are completely PC.

I can see how online reviews could be frustrating for a business owner, especially on sites where a owner can't reply. I stayed at a really nice inn recently and one of the online reviews gave it 3/5 stars because "the pillows were too soft". As long as the reader is looking at the reviews with the knowledge that a great deal of people are impossible to please/dumb, a lot of negative reviews can be disregarded.

[-] alkimija 10 points 11 hours ago

The guy's just trying to block justifiably bad reviews. Won't work.

However a good point is made regarding online reviews. Anyone can post a review, there is no verification process that the person posting the review is genuine. The fake positive reviews by owners and paid reviewers on Trip Advisor is notorious.

Trout Point Lodge sits pretty on the edge of a wilderness preserve that goes by a characteristically unpronounceable First Nations name: "Kejimkujik" – or "keji" as it's locally known.

This plush and pioneering Canadian retreat was set up by a partnership of American food entrepreneurs, Daniel Abel, Charles Leary, and Vaughn Perret, a grand log and stone cabin that's somewhere between a traditional North American hunting lodge and a rural boutique hotel. It could not be more seductively set, deep in old growth Atlantic forest on the confluence of two, boulder-strewn rivers that are coloured deep amber with peat. This is a superb spot for exploring the Big Canadian outdoors in comfort; a mossy, misty rather Scottish landscape that is characteristic of Nova Scotia. For the first time this year, Trout Point will be open over winter, when its myriad open fires, lakeside hot tub, barrel sauna and magical boreal forest will surely come into its own.

* But be warned: sign a rather innocuous form that is issued at check-in and you lose rights to publish reviews of the hotel on Trip Advisor or similar. This left this otherwise pleased punter feeling pretty perplexed.

The rooms

In keeping with its rustic shell, hewn from Canadian spruce and Nova Scotia granite, Trout Point's interior comes with Flintstones' dimension furnishings. This "haute rustic" design comprises log-and-twigs chairs, tables and beds created in a local village, large Oriental rugs and mismatched art – everything from brightly painted boreal scenes to artsy portraits of the owner and his dog. Its seven generously proportioned rooms are set over two levels around porches, patios; public rooms are lit with cavernous fires. Two more suites are set in a large chalet downriver.

The food and drink

Trout Point's gastronomy looms large on the North American culinary scene. The owners – organic farmers, cookbook writers and restaurateurs – have won numerous accolades, representing three of only a handful of Americans who are members of the French Cheesemakers Guild. The trio have roots in New Orleans and came to Nova Scotia seeking their Acadian heritage – Louisiana's Cajun culture descends from Atlantic Canada's 17th century French colonists. Food is a mix of Creole, French and modern North American, with seasonal ingredients drawn from the lodge's organic garden and surrounding forest. Expect breakfasts of home-smoked salmon, thick homemade yoghurt and plump Canadian berries (from C$30/£19). Dinners focus on superb Nova Scotia seafood: crab, lobster, scallops (two courses from C$60/£37). The North American and Nova Scotia wine menu won Wine Spectator magazine's 2010 Award of Excellence.

The extras

Trout Point's Cooking and Wine School holds regular classes, focusing on everything from seafood to cheese-making. In winter, the surrounding Tobeatic Wilderness Preserve and Kejimikujik National Park becomes a wonderland for snowshoeing and cross-country skiing. Keji recently became a dark sky preserve, so expect crystal clear star spotting, with astronomy walks organised around the sparkling river. You could even spot the aurora borealis – especially next year when record northern lights' activity is predicted.

The access

The main lodge's ground floor rooms are wheelchair accessible. The river has decked walkways.

The bill

From C$185 (£115) per night, room-only. Bridge & Wickers (020-7483 6555;

The owners of Trout Point also like to file defamation lawsuits against anyone that reports on their unsavory business practices or their connection to a major political scandal in New Orleans Louisiana.

How do they treat their guests that are not with the media? Check the following link.

What is the quote from MacBeth? "The lady doth protest too much, methinks". In other words they are talking and protesting so much that they are being less and less believed.

They (TPL) would have been way better off saying nothing.

Looks like they mean business, though I'm not sure if they have gone ahead and successfully sued anyone. I do wonder if some guests don't do sufficient research ahead of a stay there and have unreasonable expectations of such a wilderness resort?

Who knows? I guess you would actually have to see the waiver to see what ridiculous restrictions they have in place.

What I find amazing is that out of 75 reviews, 55 are rated as excellent and only 14 are either poor or terrible.

As a traveller, I read all the reviews, sort them out and make my own opinion as to whether or not I want to stay at a place. Having them place some restrictions on my freedom to voice an opinion on my stay makes me very wary of staying there.

These guys trying to silence their customers isn't the half of it. It appears the lodge is connected some sort of way to a major corruption investigation in New Orleans.
